More Towns In Sicily Captured

Milazzo And Vibo Valentia Bombarded: Shipping In Messina Straits Raided

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NORTH AFRICA, AUG. 15: TODAY'S COMMUNIQUE REPORTS THAT FIUMEFREDDO AND PIEDIMONTE HAVE BEEN OCCUPIED BY THE EIGHTH ARMY IN THE COASTAL SECTOR.

The American Seventh Army have captured Patti and Sananicelo.

American warships have bombarded Milazzo.

To-day's communique states: "Considerable advance has been made in all sectors despite difficult ground and large-scale demolitions carried out by the enemy against communication lines.

The English version of the communique says: Seventh Army troops again made good progress around the north coast and reached Oliveri, eight miles east of Patti. The withdrawing enemy is being relentlessly harassed."

NAVAL ACTIVITY IN MESSINA

Sunday's Naval Communique states: "There has been much naval activity in the straits of Messina and off the coast of Calabria and Sicily. Cruisers, destroyers, gunboats and light coastal forces are operating without intermission to harass the enemy's ports and shipping and in support of the army.

VIBO VALENTIA BOMBARDED

British naval vessels on Friday bombarded Axis positions north of Riposto and south of Taormina. Early on Saturday the harbour of Vibo Valentia on the south side of the Gulf o. Eufemia was bombarded.

At Vibo Valentia large fires were started in the harbour area, and a coastal vessel blew up. During the night of August 13/14 the United States naval force working in co-operation with the American Seventh Army in the north-east corner of Sicily aided in the movement of heavy army equipment. American naval units also bombarded Milazzo in the rear of the enemy defensive positions.'"

RAIDS IN S. ITALY

To-day's Allied Air Communique states on the night of August 13/14 light bombers and intruder aircraft of the North-West African Air Force carried out attacks on every road and railway communications in southern Italy. Yesterday bombers and fighter-bombers maintained their attacks on enemy positions and motor transport in Sicily, shipping in the Straits of Messina and communications and disembarkation areas in southern Italy.

Fighters carried out sweeps and patrols during the day. One enemy aircraft was shot down during these operations and one of ours is missing. Further reports show that two of our aircraft are missing from operations on August 13 in addition to those already reported."

CONSTANT ATTACK ON DISEMBARKATION CRAFT

From Reuter's special correspondent: The emphasis of Allied air attacks was on Saturday switched from Sicily to Southern Italy where disembarkation attempts are in full swing. Trucks, small craft, troop concentrations and bridges along the west coast of the Italian toe are under constant attack in the neighbourhood of Pizzo, Miletto, Vibo Valentia and Nicola. Three small craft were destroyed. Thirty Axis fighters approached on one occasion, but were driven off and one was destroyed.

On Friday night Allied bombers swept the main road from Palmi to Pizzo along the Italian "instep", attacked Pizzo and shot up a transport and shipping along the beaches.

30 MILES FROM MESSINA

Keeping up relentless pressure on the retreating Axis troops the Allies have advanced 14 miles along the north coast, five miles along the east coast and five miles in the centre to the east of Randazzo. Along both the coastal roads the Allies are now only about 30 miles from Messina. The German forces, splitting apart in the centre, are retreating steadily to the coast still utilizing the north-south road through Franca Villa and Novara though its northern outlet is threatened by the American spearhead only five miles away at Oliveri.

The Germans are trying desperately to get their central force out to the coast before the routes are closed. Wellingtons on Saturday night and on Sunday morning bombed Axis forces attempting landings on the Italian instep between Palmi and Pizzo and at Scilla Bagnarao. Allied naval forces are patrolling both ends of the Straits to prevent large-scale mass evacuations in larger craft.

THE FINAL PHASE

(From Reuter's Special Correspondent at Fiume Freddo): The Sicilian campaign has entered its final phase. The Germans are hurrying back in an attempt to escape to the mainland while the pursuing Allies are unable to prevent the enemy from disengaging through the need to repair bridge build alternative roads and lift mines. The Americans cut the road from Franca Villa to the coast only one hour after the Germans had got away.

The ring around Etna is now almost complete as a result of the American progress to Franca Villa, and the occupation by British troops of towns along the east coast. The nature of the pursuit is indicated in a statement by the second-in Command of the leading infantry battalion, Major Fredrick H. Brunton who said: "We have advanced 10 miles in the past two days".

ST. OMER AIRFIELDS ATTACKED

The Headquarters of the European Theatre of Operations, United States Army, announce: "United States Eighth Air Force Marauder medium bombers attacked enemy airfields at Saint Omer in France to-day".

NAZI WITHDRAWAL TOWARDS MESSINA

Allied Headquarters in North Africa Aug. 15:—The Eighth Army and German rearguards have broken off all contact on the east coast of Sicily. The Germans are withdrawing rapidly towards Messina. The Americans thrusting from Randazzo have cut the north to south inland road but too late to trap fleeing Germans.—Reuter.

Why Rome Was Declared Open City

ROME, Aug. 15.

The radio broadcast today the following statement regarding the declaration of Rome as an open city: "The Italian Government had come to the determination as far back as July 31 of declaring Rome an open city. If it was not till now possible to put this decision into effect, the responsibility certainly does not lie with the Italian authorities. The Italian Government has not yet been notified under what conditions the decision could be carried out. After having waited a longer time than was expected under the circumstances for an answer to come from the opposite sides, the Government proceeded without loss of time to declare Rome an open city. This has been welcomed unanimously by the Catholic world but not by the Catholic world alone. History has made Rome the centre of the world's spiritual activities because ever since the times of the Roman Empire, Rome has recognised the rights of every political organisation of enjoy in liberty its own free belief and its respective tradition. This characteristic of Rome has been preserved throughout centuries and is recalled to at all times by its monuments and its memories which sum up the history of western civilization itself throughout its difficult ascent towards the supremacy of the spirit. Both religious and civic conscience look up on this decision by Marshal Badoglio's Government as eminently satisfactory. This is because it has interpreted sentiments of humanity and civilisation which are eternally and inviolably impressed upon human consciences beyond the reach of changes and calamities of warfare."—Reuter.

NO NAZI HEADQUARTERS IN ROME

The German Overseas News Service commenting on the declaration of Rome as an Open City said to-night that it was now apparent that the Pope's activities were limited to passing on to the Allies the desire of the Italian Government. It added that the most important departments of the Italian Ministries left Rome a considerable time ago and so did the Italian High Command. The Germans never had Headquarters or barracks in Rome.—Reuter.

Italian Radio On Rome's Position

LONDON, Aug. 15: The Rome Radio in a statement to-day to the Italian people emphasised that the declaration that Rome is an open city cannot come into operation on the strength of a statement from one side only." It will be valid only when a bilateral statement is issued by the two belligerent powers", the statement said: "The enemy must be allowed to ascertain that the measures laid down by International Law are all and integrally carried out."—Reuter.

India Supplies Textile Goods To Turkey

ANKARA, Aug. 14.

Textile goods which Turkey formerly brought from Britain she is now buying from India as a more convenient source of supply. Six thousand tons of jute purchases which are awaiting shipment from India are urgently needed in Turkey since there is an acute shortage of sacks for newly harvested grain, coal, etc. Five hundred tons of cotton yarn have already been shipped from India and there are 1,750 tons of piecegoods still to be brought.—Reuter.

Pressure From Pope Tells

LONDON, Aug. 14.

Reuter's commentator on Italy, wires:

The proclamation of Rome as an open city has been made by Marshal Badoglio after prolonged pressure by the Holy See to bring this about. The Pope in his statement after the first bombing of Rome alluded to appeals which he had made to both sides to obtain that Rome should be immune from warfare. The Vatican subsequently rebuked the Germans for claiming that the Pope held the Allies as solely responsible for the damage done to Rome.—Reuter.

PATNA, August 14.

The alleged murder of the subdivisional officer of Sitamarhi in North Bihar, and two others at the hands of mob during the disturbances in August last year, was recalled in the Patna High Court yesterday when the sentence of death passed on accused Ramphal Dhanuk by the Special Judge came up for reference and was confirmed by Mr. Justice Agrawala and Mr. Justice Brough.—A. R. A. F. Raids Berlin & Milan

LONDON, Aug. 15: An Air Ministry communique states: "Last night aircraft of the Bomber Command attacked the Breda armaments works and other war factories and communications in the industrial area of Milan. First reports show that the bombing was well concentrated.

"Mosquitos" bombed objectives in Berlin.

Aircraft of the Fighter command on intruder patrols destroyed two enemy aircraft. Airfields and railways in France and Belgium were attacked and one E Boat was sunk near the Channel Islands.

"One bomber is missing."

The Breda armament works which were attacked by Bombers Command on Sunday night are the largest and the most important of the group of factories at Sestosan Giovanni to the northeast of Milan. This was Milan's 17th raid and third in eight days. In Pirelli rubber works, the Flat motor works and the Ansaldo and Marconi engineering works are alo situated there. Great damage was reported after previous heavy attacks.

ROME Aug. 15:—To-day's Italian Communique states: "Enemy planes last night dropped bombs on Milan, numerous buildings collapsed and many fires were started.

Greater Germany Raided From Middle East

CAIRO, August 14.

Four hundred brand new "Messerschmitts" just off the assembly line at the great Wiener Neustadt factory south of Vienna were battered with more than one-third of a million pounds of bombs yesterday. A big force of Middle East based American bombers making a 2,500 mile flight across southern Europe struck a surprise blow at the great aircraft plant.

It is the first time that Greater Germany has been raided from the Middle East. The factory is one of the largest in Greater Reich and when the "Liberators", all of which returned safely, left the target area, great columns of smoke were rising and scores of bombs bursting among hundreds of parked fighters.—Reuter.

HAVOC WROUGHT AT WIENER NEUSTADT

CAIRO:—The Middle East Air Communique states:—"Reports now to hand provide fuller details of attacks by Liberator bombers of the Ninth United States Army Air Force on the aircraft production centre at Wiener Neustadt (Austria) on August 13. Many fires and explosions were started in the air-frame works. One explosion sending smoke to a height of 10,000 feet. All buildings and hangars in this area were well covered by bombs Aircraft attacking the assembly-plants scored hits on plants on the eastern, southern and western sides. Bombs also burst among enemy aircraft already assembled in parking and dispersal areas."

2,000 DEAD IN MEWAR FLOODS

NEW DELHI, Aug. 15.

The recent floods in Mewar have taken huge toll of human life, about 2,000 people have lost their lives and property worth lacs of rupees has been destroyed. The State and the public are rendering relief in all possible ways.

The Khari, Kothari, Manasi and Nekati rivers had unprecedented floods, the Khari causing the heaviest damage in life and property, wholly wiping out villages and destroying thousands of houses. Miles of fertile lands have been converted to desert. Parties of relief workers from Bhilwara, Bewar, Neemuch and Udaipur proceeded to the affected areas and rendered help to the victims of the floods by distributing grain and cloth. A relief committee had been formed with Mr Tayaball Bar-at-Law, as President to collect funds and organise relief in the distressed areas.

So far over Rs. 60,000 have been collected. The Relief Committee appeals to the citizens of India to come to the rescue of the distressed people by sending generous contributions in cash and kind to the Secretary of the Mewar Relief Committee Udaipur.—A P

Narali-Purnima In City

BOMBAY, Sunday.

The calendar has conspired to cheat the clerks and teachers, and other workers of two holidays because Cocoanut Day and a lunar eclipse have not only met but met on a Sunday. But the fact of its being a Sunday made no difference to the observance of Narali-purnima by the Hindus of Bombay with the usual ceremonies of taking cocoanuts to the sea and throwing them in the water. All streets leading to the sea were crowded with visitors to the sea.

'Rakshabandhan' is observed by sisters by putting around wrists of brothers a string and token on this day by a large section of Hindus while the Brahmans renew their sacred threads. Narali-purnima is supposed to mark the end of the rainy season and after token offering of cocoanuts to the sea it is regarded safe for voyages by ships.

The Cocoanut fair which is held to-day at the Azad Maidan is done away with this year, but in the evening to enable the people to resort to the seaside, like Chowpaty, Reclamation and Marine Drive, the vehicular traffic has been restricted and will be allowed to pass by certain routes only.

NO INVITATION FOR SOVIET

Moscow Denies Br. Press Reports On Quebec Talks

LONDON, Aug. 13. (Delayed).

The Moscow Radio gave the following statement on Friday morning:

"The Tass News Agency denies that M. Stalin or any representative of the Soviet Government will participate at the forthcoming meeting between President Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill.

British papers published a report that Soviet military attaches would take part at the meeting as observers. The Tass states that these reports are based on a misunderstanding.

The Soviet Government have received no invitation to this meeting. As is clear from the character of the Conference, participation of any representative of the Soviet Government at the meeting in Quebec was not and is not intended."

STALIN'S LETTER TO CHURCHILL

LONDON, Aug. 15.

The "Observer's" diplomatic correspondent declares to-day Marshal Stalin has sent a letter to Mr. Churchill and President Roosevelt on the eve of the Quebec Conference according to a report in London. While no confirmation of this is forthcoming in official circles, the rumour appears to be well founded. Marshal Stalin's letter is believed to be couched in extremely cordial terms.—Reuter.

Gallup Poll For Roosevelt

NEW YORK, August 14.

A gallup poll of Democrat voters throughout the United States shows that 83 per cent are in favour of a fourth term as President for Mr. Roosevelt. In five largest states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California President Roosevelt polled 83 per cent., 91 per cent., 87 per cent., 91 per cent. and 86 per cent. respectively.

Of President Roosevelt's possible rivals for democratic nomination Vice-President Henry Agard Wallace polled an average of four and a half per cent. in these five states. Mr. James A. Farley ex-Post-Master General, three per cent. Mr. James F. Byrnes, Director of the Office of War Mobilisation, one and a half per cent. Mr. Paul McNutt, Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, one per cent.—Reuter.

RENEWED FLOOD IN BURDWAN

Villagers Take Shelter On Tree Tops

CALCUTTA, Aug. 14.

About 300 villages are under water in the areas affected by the renewed flood in Burdwan according to the Honorary Secretary of the Social Service Department of the Marwari Relief Society, Mr. Bhalchandra Sarma, who has returned from a visit to the area.

He adds that a large number of people, including women and children were found taking shelter on tree tops. One man was seen hanging from a telegraph wire to save himself from being washed away by the floods. "The Society's Rescue Party", adds the Secretary, "has been trying its best to rescue these stranded families but the work is being hampered by want of sufficient boats."—A. P.

SMUTS' REPUTATION AS WORLD STATESMAN DAMAGED

Johannesburg "Natives'" Victory Against Europeans: "Natal Mercury" In Temper Over Reciprocity Act

(From Our Own Correspondent)

DURBAN, Aug. 15.

With effrontery and an appeal to baser forms of racial passion, typical of the attitude of mind that remains sublimely unconscious of the fact that this world does consist of others as well as Europeans, the "Natal Mercury" in an editorial informs South Africa that the recent debate in India on the Reciprocity Act "reduces the status of Indians in South Africa to that of immigrants".

Then, with the most engaging naviete, it goes on to say: "The Natal Indian must decide whether he is a citizen of South Africa or a citizen of India," totally ignoring the fact that the one narrow approach to citizenship for Indians in South Africa namely, the Indian franchise in Natal was taken away as far back as 1896 and the Municipal Franchise was taken away in 1924.

CROCODILE TEARS

The editorial continues on the line of one of those brief historical analyses of Indian Settlement in Natal which conveniently ignore the fundamental cause and effect and sheds crocodile tears over the sufferings of the Hindus by contrasting their deplorable conditions with that "of the wealthy minority of Mohammedans many, if not most of whom slipped into South Africa as traders and have no real status in the country."

This is followed by a breath-catching 'volte-face' on the part of the paper which informs us that "the advance of the Indians in South Africa to full citizenship must necessarily be gradual but much has been done to attain that goal."

THREATS AND EXHORTATION

The editorial ends on mixed notes of threat, exhortation and appeal to the effect that the Reciprocity Act is a double-edged weapon. The paper says: "The Natal Indians should decide for themselves whether they are citizens of South Africa or citizens of India" and that the Hindus have only themselves to blame if they leave the decision to a 'money minority' of Mohammedans.

SMUTS' REFUSAL

The cause of this blatant effusion is a refusal by General Smuts to receive a deputation charged with the duty of presenting a resolution calling for a charter of Indian Rights passed by the recently held conference of the South African Indian Congress at Johannesburg. The refusal is on grounds that the resolution contained a threat of appeal to other countries and, further, presumably for the reason that the Indian community in South Africa had appealed to India for assistance to combat the retrogressive legislation such as the Pegging Act. This is of course, a pique arising out of the damage which the Pegging Act has done to the reputation of General Smuts as a world statesman. It also serves as a screen to hide the Operation of the Pegging Act in Johannesburg where 500 Indians and coloured families who have resided for many years in areas defined in terms of the Gold Law have received notice to move to other quarters, as their present occupation has been rendered illegal by the Pegging Act. These notices are being served by the police at the rate of about 20 per day despite the fact that no alternative accommodation is available.

INDIAN UNITY IN SIGHT

THE INDIANS OF SOUTH AFRICA ARE IN PROCESS OF COMPOSING THEIR DIFFERENCES. A LARGE SECTION OF JOHANNESBURG DEPRESSED AFRICAN NATIVE POPULATION HAS JUST WON A STRIKE AGAINST THE EUROPEAN BUSOWNERS WHO SOUGHT TO INCREASE THEIR DAILY TRAVEL BY 20 PER CENT. THE COLOURED PEOPLE ARE RESTLESS IN THE CAPE. AND IN SHORT NON-EUROPEAN SOUTH AFRICA MOVES TOWARDS A UNITY THAT MUST EVENTUALLY SNAP THE SHACKLES OF RACIAL INTOLERANCE IN THAT COUNTRY.

Another Expert For India!

CALCUTTA, Aug. 15.

It is understood the Government of India have invited Dr. H. L. Richardson, a leading soil chemist, for discussing with Indian soil experts problems relating to Indian soils and methods of agriculture as compared with those in China.

Dr. Richardson, who is at present in China on an invitation of the Chinese Government, is expected to arrive at Calcutta at the beginning of September.

It is further understood the Government of India have convened a conference of soil experts in New Delhi.—United Press.

Punjab Minister Denies Charge Of Profiteering

SIMLA, Aug. 15.

"One fact clearly emerged from the food debate in the Central Assembly. That is the fault lay with the Government of India as was quite apparent from the speech of Sir Azizul Haque, the then Food Member."

Thus observed Sardar Baldev Singh, Food Minister of the Punjab, in an interview to the United Press.

"The fault," the Sardar added, "lay with the transport arrangements also which even to-day are far from satisfactory. If the Government of India are really anxious to relieve the distress in the deficit provinces they should make adequate and immediate arrangements for transporting food grains from surplus provinces."

Regarding the charge of profiteering against the Punjab, Sardar Baldev Singh said that it was entirely absurd and baseless and had been made by those who were totally ignorant of the realities. He asserted that the Punjab Government had not made profit of a single pie uptil now. —United Press.

DELHI DENIES RICE EXPORTS FROM CALCUTTA

NEW DELHI, Aug. 14.

There is no truth whatever in the statement to which publicity has been given that a large consignment of rice has recently been exported from Calcutta to South Africa, says a Press Note.

Since the beginning of 1943 the only shipments of rice from Calcutta to South Africa have been for the consumption of Indian crews of merchant ships in South African ports, and have amounted to 727 tons in all. Except for a consignment in January last of 2,000 tons of rice for the Persian Gulf, there have been no other exports of rice from Calcutta whatever.—A. P.

Stage Set For Quebec Conference

Preliminary Talks Between Churchill And Roosevelt Formulate Plans

(From Reuter's Special Correspondent at Quebec, August 15):

It is officially announced here that Prime Minister Mr. Churchill returned to-day direct from conferences with President Roosevelt. They have completed preliminary arrangements for their Quebec conference with the combined Chiefs of Staff. Mr. Churchill was accompanied by his daughter Mary Churchill and was greeted on arrival by British, American and Canadian military leaders.

With Mr. Churchill's return it is stated authoritatively that the first stage of the deliberations has been completed. Everything is now in readiness for the presentation of broad plans formulated by Mr. Churchill and President Roosevelt to the combined Chiefs of Staff. Mr. Churchill's preliminary talks with President Roosevelt took place in the United States. President Roosevelt is expected to arrive at Quebec later.

Prospects Of Churchill-Roosevelt Talks

QUEBEC, Aug. 14.

From Reuter's special correspondent:

The Churchill-Roosevelt Conference, which it is anticipated will be under way here soon, will have political as well as military aspects. The political question will be on a war and post-war basis.

According to well-informed quarters a great part of the discussions will be devoted to attuning the Anglo-American strategy with that of Russia. No responsible official admits that there is any serious divergence of opinion between Mr. Churchill and President Roosevelt on the one hand and M. Stalin on the other. One official said today: "It may be taken for granted that special arrangements have been made to keep Marshal Stalin fully informed. It is not true to suggest that the Soviet requests for a second front have no place at this conference. All that can be said at present is that plans for the final offensives in Europe are among the questions being considered."—Reuter.

PROBING INTO QUEBEC PLANS

From Reuter's Special Correspondent at Washington, August 14: All signs point to the opening of a second front—in Marshal Stalin's conception of the phrase—in the near future. Well informed circles here are virtually unanimous that a major Allied attack in Europe will be in full swing before the end of the year. The British, American and Canadian military chiefs in Quebec are believed to be mainly engaged in thrashing out details of the invasion plan which have already been accepted in principle by President Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill.

The majority of observers think that only an offensive from Britain against Hitler's "west wall" will satisfy the strategic requirements. The Red Army's summer success is considered the final determination of the Allied decision to speed up the war schedule. One of the most reliable military experts in the United States believes that Marshal Stalin means to smash the Germans on Soviet soil this year. "The Reichswehr can be beaten and beaten thoroughly on the present battlefield unless it throws in its strategic reserves. To prevent this, the Allies must tie up at least 30 more German divisions."

There is much speculation over the possibility of the Germans withdrawing from Norway thus saving eight or more divisions for fighting elsewhere, but the best informed opinion is that the disadvantages for the Germans outweigh the advantages. It would mean the withdrawal of Finland from the war, expose vital areas in Germany to air attack from the north and pave the way for Allied naval penetration into Baltic.

One decision awaiting President Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill is choice of the Commander-in-Chief. The weight of opinion in the United States is that a Briton—probably General Alexander or General Montgomery—will be selected unless General Eisenhower is given the overall command in Western Europe as well as in the Mediterranean.

The feeling that the Pacific war is also looming large at Quebec is increased by Moscow's announcement that Marshal Stalin was not invited since Russia and Japan are not at war. General Alexander inevitably springs to mind as the Commander-in-Chief in the Far Eastern sphere if he fails to get the European.—Reuter.

EDEN TO VISIT QUEBEC

QUEBEC, August 15.

Reuter's special correspondent wires: The British Foreign Secretary Mr. Anthony Eden will definitely come to Quebec to take part in the Roosevelt-Churchill conferences, it was stated by a most reliable source. All preparations have been made for Mr. Eden's arrival.

It is stated here that Mr. Eden will discuss in detail American-British relations with Russia. He is expected to transmit to Russia plans for military offensive being formulated here.

Mr. Eden is expected to discuss Allied occupation and the treatment of Italy when the final capitulation is forthcoming. Italian desire to have Rome declared an open city will also be considered.

A well informed observer said "Rome will be regarded an open city if castiron gurantees are given that the city is not and will not be used for military purposes. Rome has not been bombed to destroy its historic monuments. If military movement is stopped then the bombing will stop." —Reuter.

NAZI LAST STAND AT KHARKOV

Reds Capture Thousands Of Barrels Of Petrol

Morning despatch from Reuter's Special Correspondent in Moscow Aug. 15: The Germans are making a fierce last stand round Kharkov, but are steadily losing ground and have been forced to abandon many of their stores. At one railway station the Russians say, they have captured thousands of barrels of petrol, a quarter million hand-grenades and over half a million shells. One correspondent says that the Ukraine sky is "crowded with Soviet planes."

NAZI RESISTANCE NEAR KARACHEV

The Germans have greatly increased their resistance at the near approaches to Karachev on the hills east of the town and on the river Zneshot, south of the town, from where the Germans have launched counter-attacks against the centre of the Soviet forces. At separate places Soviet forces have broken in the last German defence line and captured a number of heights. East of the city there is a line of small villages where the Germans are trying to delay Soviet progress by forcing the Russians into street battles but several of these villages were taken yesterday. On the right flank the Russians have also made progress. The threat to Karachev, says the "Red Star", is growing steadily. The Briansk-Kharkov railroad has not yet been intercepted. The nearest points on this railway reached by the Russians moving westward below Briansk are Dimitrovsk and Orlovsky, 16 miles from the railway. The small town of Nadlia captured on August 13 is fourteen miles south-east of Karachev and 30 miles west of the Briansk-Kharkov railroad.—Reuter.

RUSSIA AND QUEBEC

Now we are beginning to be told in delayed messages that all is not well in the matter of relations between America and Britain, on the one hand, and their Russian ally, on the other. The Russian official Tass Agency has exploded a good deal of misleading propaganda with the following statement about the Quebec Conference: "The Soviet Government have received no invitation to this meeting. As is clear from the character of the Conference, participation of any representative of the Soviet Government at the meeting in Quebec was not and is not intended." Agitated attempts are being semi-officially made, as, for instance, through Reuter's diplomatic correspondent, to explain away the confusion. And they appear slightly ridiculous. For, even granting the bona fides of British and American statesmen, responsible for it, the fact remains that Russia was not invited even while President Roosevelt permitted himself to say that they would be glad to have Marshal Stalin at the meeting. The matter cannot be dismissed as unimportant, for, otherwise the Russian Government would not have got the Tass Agency to issue this statement. This is Stalin's way of drawing the world's attention to an unfortunate situation, lack of agreement, understanding and confidence among the three Allies. It is a serious issue.

Roosevelt Remembers

President Roosevelt has celebrated the second anniversary of the signing of the Atlantic Charter with a broadcast. So far as the peoples of the "Empires" of the President's Allies are concerned the performance was more like an "in memorium" oration because the Charter was thrown into the Atlantic immediately after it was signed and announced to the world. And in this connection it is very interesting to note that the President's co-author of the Charter has had nothing to say on its second anniversary. But why has the President reminded the world of that document? It would be too much to hope even from him that he is still working for its application to what the British, the French, the Dutch and the Belgians quite wrongly insist is "theirs." The only possible interpretation of the Presidential enthusiasm is that it is a hint to Russia as regards Eastern Europe in general and the Baltic States in particular. It is quite likely, too, because these States form the main subject of differences, which are now coming to a head, with Russia.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

Welcome Decision

Rome was raided again the other day. And as an immediate result of it Marshal Badoglio, wiser than Mussolini, has declared it an open city. This is a very welcome decision because Rome, because of its historical and cultural associations and monuments, means something much more than the seat of a belligerent Government and one of the centres of its war efforts. Let us hope the full requirements of International Law will be satisfied by Italy and readily accepted by America and Britain and that Rome has had its last raid on August 13. There is, however, no doubt that the decision forced upon Badoglio is a tribute to the air strength of the Allies and while it will give relief to the entire world including Italy, it will also further weaken the morale of the people of Italy. That morale, however, is already being subjected to much heavier blows elsewhere. To the defeats in Sicily are being added the destructive raids on vital towns in Italy, particularly Milan and Turin.

Headache For Axis

Italians are facing the devastating fact that day by day the Allied offensive is increasing both the scale and the area of its operations, so that presently no part of Italy will remain unvisited by destructive bombers. How long can they stand up to all this and allow the Victor Emmanuel-Badoglio combination to continue the war? But the Allied air offensive from the Mediterranean is not a severe headache for Italy alone. The Germans have also got something to worry about. The Ploesti raid, which was carried out with heavy loss, of aircraft, has now been followed by one, without loss, on Wiener Neustadt, south of Vienna. Both raids stuck blows on Germany's war strength. But what is more important is that the long arm of Allied air power is extending itself tentacle-like to every part of Germany and "Greater" Germany.

Banking, A Service

Speaking at the opening of the Sholapur Branch of the Denabank, Mr. Walchand Hirachand envisaged the day when India would be thoroughly industrialised and be in a position to supply "motor cars, locomotives, railway coaches, tramways, buses, aeroplanes, ships, electric goods, machinery and the thousand and one things for which we have to depend on imports". Such industrial development postulates the existence of proper agencies to finance industrial enterprises. Perhaps, Mr. Pranlal Devkaran Nanjee, Chairman of the Denabank, had this in mind when he described banking as a service. To induce people to save, to mobilise the saving capacity of the people, to tap all the sources and resources of cheap money and harness them for the industrial regeneration of the country constitute national service, in which the patriotic banker can play his role. Instead of competing in the limited field of internal trade, there is ample room for expansion of banking activities. An earnest attempt should be made to capture the import and export trade and foreign exchange business which are virtually the monopoly of foreigners. In this matter the Reserve Bank of India can give a lead to Indian scheduled banks. Public opinion must also assert itself and compel the Government to make the sterling accumulations available to help the industrialisation of the country without waiting for indefinite advent of "Bancor" or "Unitas". A co-ordination of efforts of the common saver, the banker and the industrialist with patriotism and service as the cementing link is the only high road to India's prosperity.

RANGANATHAN ON "BLIND ALLEY OF INDIAN DEADLOCK"

MADRAS, Aug. 15.

Interviewed regarding the object of his recent speeches in Madras for the formation of a new leadership to solve the political deadlock, Mr. S. Ranganathan, ex-Minister to the Madras Government, said: "I am not actuated by any desire to belittle the achievements of our leaders or of the greatest political organisation in our country, the Congress.

"But I am convinced that under their leadership the country has been led to a blind alley and that unless the people get back to the realities and are prepared to act in full realisation of their strength and their weakness so as to gather the sympathy and assistance of all lovers of freedom throughout the world this country will make no progress towards the achievement of political independence, economic prosperity and social justice.

"I realise that a move now to accept the Cripps offer may appear belated. Britain may think that she no longer stands in need of Indian popular support and she can carry through to victory with the aid of Sec. 93 of the Government of India Act. Indians may feel humiliated at being driven to take back something which had been once rejected but thinking minds in Britain are bound to realise that the war is far from won especially in the eastern theatre and wiser counsels must prevail in India that a past mistake has to be remedied even at the cost of a little loss of face".—United Press.

Srivastava On Mrs. Naidu's Statement

LUCKNOW, August 14.

Mr. Gopinath Srivastava, M. L. A., and member of the A.-I. C. C., in the course of a press statement welcomes the statement of Mrs. Sarojini Naidu, which he says, is bound to go a long way in clarifying the present Congress position. Some of them, he adds, have already raised their feeble voice against any individual or set of individuals, acting or speaking on behalf of the Congress or carrying on activities in the name of the Congress which are opposed to the creed of the Congress but the authoritative and weighty voice of Mrs. Naidu would set at rest all doubts in that connection.

In regard to their move for an informal meeting of prominent Congressmen, Mr. Srivastava says that Dr. Subbaroyan has already in his latest statement from Bombay, put forth their views in categorical terms. Since then they have circulated their proposals for opinion to over 600 prominent Congressmen in different provinces. He feels, it is necessary for such of them as are out to review the situation in their collective capacity. —A. P.

Dr. Subbaroyan's Plea

MADRAS, Aug. 15.

Dr. P. Subbaroyan has issued the following statement :—

President Roosevelt in a message issued in connection with the second anniversary of the signing of the Atlantic Charter states that the right of self-determination is becoming once more a living reality. I take it this includes nations in the East as well as in the West. If my assumption is correct President Roosevelt must tackle the ending of the Indian deadlock during his present conference with Mr. Churchill. This, in my opinion, is part of the war strategy of the United Nations. The key to the breaking of this deadlock lies in the hands of Gandhiji. Will the President and the Prime Minister face facts and release Gandhiji so that he might meet Jinnah as a free man and bring about a settlement in India and the formation of a National Government, which alone can turn its efforts to total war effort and thus help the reconquest of Burmah and the defeat of the aggressor Japan in the east. —A. Constituencies' Plea To Frontier Governor

PESHAWAR, Aug. 15.

A request for permitting the detained Congress members of the Frontier Assembly to attend its session commencing on August 17, has been made to H. E. the Governor by some constituents.

While recalling the kindness of the Governor in extending the privilege of parole to some of the detenus for attending on their sick relations and participating in death and funeral ceremonies, the constituents ask for the same privilege of release on parole without any peril to public peace to their representatives for exercising the right of representation in the House which is of higher sanctity.

Breach Of Promise Suit Settled

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Coyajee.)

Annie Dorothy Coutinho .. Plaintiff
Edger George Duarte ... Defendant.

The Plaintiff a young Indian Christian lady, 23 years of age, filed this suit for breach of promise of marriage claiming Rs. 10,000 by way of damages from the defendant, an employee in the office of the "Times of India". She alleged that they had become intimate friends ever since they met at Goa in January 1939 and that in 1939 they had actually entered into a written agreement of marriage. The defence was that the defendant's parents objected to the match on the ground of the plaintiff's lack of education and social status and that a fresh agreement had been entered into in place of the agreement of May 1939.

After the hearing had gone on for some time, the parties came to terms and His Lordship, by consent of parties, passed a decree in favour of the Plaintiff for Rs. 1,000 but made no order as to the costs of the suit.

MAHATMA HAS TAUGHT RELIGION OF TRUTH

Unveilling the portrait of Mahatma Gandhi at Khalsa College on Friday Mr. K. M. Munshi in the course of his speech said :—

What Gandhiji has taught us is the religion of Truth.' It offers no kingdom of heaven except in oneself. It hopes for no salvation except in being true to oneself. God is Truth, sang the seers of old. Truth is God, proclaims this seer of the new world.

I wrote a book called "I Follow the Mahatma" I acknowledged Gandhiji to be the Master. And men who neither read my book nor understand Gandhiji often upbraid me for not following him. It is easy to sing Gandhiji's praises. It is easier still to fall in line with the powerful organisations which he builds up. But what he builds is not what he stands for. What he does, is different from what he is. And it is difficult to realise what he is and difficult by far to be in the way that he is.

"NEW WORLD ORDER"

In the course of his address on "Gandhism and a New World Order" Mr. Y. G. Krishnamurti said :—

"Gandhism is moral activism. It is world affirmation and not otherworldliness. The cosmic mission of Gandhism will mark the first appearance of humanist culture, and genuine democracy in the world. It is opposed to the neo-paganism of the Nazis which opposed makes power the supreme political value. It believes in the ethical basis of political life. The Gandhian tradition has its deep roots in Indian culture. The Gandhian ideology approximates the one which was the original inspiration of Western democracy and finds its justification in the teachings of Buddha, Christ and Confucius. The Gandhian technique of political action aims at assuring the right of every man to live a full human life.

Menaka's Dance Demonstration

India's Wealth Of Classical Technique

Expounding the technique of the Classical Indian Dance at the Sundrabai Hall on Friday evening Madame Menaka said that it was not the nationality of a dancer or the theme danced or the costumes used that made the dance Indian, but the technique that was employed. A dance to be Indian must be danced in the rich and beautiful teennique which had been developed in this country over hundreds of years.

The occasion was the discourse by Menaka under the auspices of the Sanskriti Kendra which was accompanied by demonstrations by herself and the artistes of Nrityalayam. The hall was full to its capacity and Dr. D G. Vyas presided on behalf of the Shri Sanskriti Kendra. Mr. Kamdar welcomed the guests.

Continuing Madame Menaka dwelt on various items that went to compose the Indian dance and said that the body movements, gesture and songs depicted in gesture and dance were governed by and strictly adhered to the Tala or metrical pattern played on the drum. Abhinaya or suggestive imitation of the various moods and emotional state of the characters in a song or dance drama was the soul of Nritya.

Abhinaya, she said was of a symbolic and not of a pantomimic nature and therefore distinctive of India. It was true, it needed an instructed public as they had in ancient times to understand and appreciate the dance. Such a public would be critical and would not be satisfied with the spurious and the debased. It would immediately detect in the so-called modernisation, purely improvised pantomime and a purile imitation of the silent movies. An initiated public would, she concluded, stimulate excellence in performance by the dancers.

The discourse was punctuated with demonstrations by Shevanti, Krishnan Kutti and Ram Narain. Mme Menaka herself participated in them.

Dr. D. G. Vyas who presided congratulated the Sankriti Kendra for persuading Menaka to give such an excellent demonstration of the Classic art. He deplored that Kathak as a classical dance was not fully appreciated, and congratulated Menaka for resurrecting and reviving it and winning for the Kathak international recognition. He referred to the activities of 'Nrityalayam' at Khandala and the new dance classes which Menaka had inaugurated in Bombay at the persuasion of friends and hoped that the public would take advantage of them. He appealed to Menaka to initiate the public into the appreciation of classical dances and make them dance-conscious. Concluding he said "Bombay expects more demonstrations of classical dance from you."

Appeal To Bijapur Cultivators

The following resolution was passed unanimously by the Bijapur District Famine Relief Committee :

"Whereas in this district (1) in a rotation of five years, there is only one good harvest, two are lean years and two are scarcity periods. (2) there are no large scale industries, (3) people are poor, steeped in debts and have no staying power, (4) there is the fear of the repetitions of undergoing the miseries and sufferings we are now in, the District Famine Relief Committee, Bijapur, appeals to all people to retain quantities of foodgrains to be grown in coming harvest to maintain themselves, their families and their dependents and to pay wages in kind for cultivation purposes, sufficient to last for at least two years and further appeals to them not to be tempted to part with them on any grounds including high rates and repayment of loans.

This Committee earnestly requests the Government to consider the adjustment and distribution of grain on a regional basis so that a district habitually subjected to scarcity or famine has a fair reserve to fall back upon for a year or two."

Mr. Eden, who, Washington reports state, is to visit Moscow on a mission, will first attend the Quebec conference in order to "give him prestige."

But what an ineffectual method of acquiring prestige! The best thing—and every Britisher will agree—would be for Mr. Eden to borrow the Viceroy's frock coat, coach and eight and the famous picturesque Bodyguard and drive in state from the Moscow station to the Kremlin. As everybody knows Stalin is essentially an Oriental and as everybody ought to know such a spectacular approach is certain to overwhelm him, with a sense of Mr. Eden's "PRESTIGE."

The Nagpur University has conferred the honorary degree of D.Litt. on Mr. V. D. Savarkar at its recent Convocation.

The honour is without doubt fully deserved. But it is not clear whether it is a tribute to the present writing President of the Hindu Mahasabha or a recognition of his past quality as a historian.

According to Dr. P. V. Naidu of the Madras Mahasabha, Messrs. V. D. Savarkar and M. A. Jinnah are likely to meet at an early date.

But the old questions still remain: where and how?

Our own solution would be that both should meet accidentally on a railway journey to New Delhi. It wouldn't be easy. But given assiduous efforts on the part of intermediaries it could be arranged after due and patient consultation with the two leaders.

In a recent broadcast President Roosevelt declares that the enemies to be fought and conquered are not only Germany, Italy and Japan but also "all the forces of oppression, intolerance, insecurity and injustice...."

We fully agree with the President's views. But will he succeed?

By the way the occasion was the second anniversary of the Atlantic Charter to which, he pointedly observed, each and every one of the United Nations had subscribed.

But let's anticipate a misunderstanding on your part and try to remove it.

The reminder was not really addressed to Mr. Churchill about India so much as to Marshal Stalin about the Baltic States.

The Half-Column

By "Dim"

Poona on Saturday was wet and cloudy in parts. Racing was keen, though the crowds were a little damped by the results and the persistent drizzle. The bookies ring bore the formidable onslaught of the more knowledgable punters, though they were a little shaken by the Ahmedbhoy brothers who scored a smashing double with Minnat and Fancy Dress. Alec Higgins also gave the bookies a few anxious moments. The week-end would have been delightful for me but for the running of PLEADER. That 4 year old from Lahore burnt holes in my pockets as he finished third last in a fairly large field. But racing is full of up's and down's and it would not be half as exciting without these. Somebody whispered to me that Gwalior would probably be purchasing that brilliant 3 year old CLITHEROE and the sum spoken of was a lac of Rupees!! It took my breath away, but I suppose it's all right if you can afford it. Besides Gwalior must be doing very well with the good prices his horses have been paying—specially the place dividends. I have always refused to believe that the Maharajah is a non-betting man and last week-end a very knowledgable and much-respected racing correspondent who moves in the inner ring confirmed that opinion. We are, of course very pleased with anyone's success at the Turf and we take the liberty of suggesting Gwalior's name to the Bijapur Relief Committee!! I always said that to figure in this Half Column was expensive!
